

Carbon

Conductor : James White

Jim White is presently a professor and Coordinator of Fine Arts at the Faculty of Education at the University of Western Ontario.

Jim's musical activities in London include conducting their Youth Orchestra from 1969 to 1986, and currently he performs in the trumpet section of Orchestra London.

Jim has conducted many national ensembles such as the Venezuelan National Youth Orchestra, the Oakland California Youth Orchestra, and various All Provincial Bands across Canada.

Adjudicating music festivals and clinician work are two other aspects of Jim's music career.

The Wellington Winds would like to thank Jim for finding time in his busy schedule to share his musical expertise and talent and conduct this series of concerts.

Emperata Overture
Can You Read My Mind
Polka and Fugue
Theme From "Barnaby Jones"
Chester
Kazachok
March of the Cueballs

Claude T. Smith
Williams / Lowden
Weinberger / Bainum
Goldsmith / Maltby
Schuman
Tschaikowsky / Barnes
Mancini

 Intermission *****

Montego Bay
Billy Joel In Concert
Danza Final (Malambo)
Bartok Centennial Suite
Dance and Intermezzo
Elsa's Procession

Nestico
Joel / Barker
Ginastera / John
Bartok
Carter
Wagner / Cailliet