The Inter-Mennonite Children's Choir

The Inter-Mennonite Children's Choir is a community children's choir in the Kitchener-Waterloo area. For over forty years, the IMCC's focus has been to train young voices and give young singers a life-long appreciation of music. Singers from all denominations and backgrounds are welcome. The choir is very excited to be in the middle of recording a Christmas CD called "What Sweeter Music" set to be released at the 45th anniversary concert on Sunday May 6, 2012.

Gordon Greene

Gordon Greene is a cultural historian with a special interest in the role of artists in society throughout the ages. He taught music history in universities for 40 years and since retirement has continued offering courses to 3rd age learning groups. Gordon served eleven years as Dean of Music at Wilfrid Laurier University.

Carolyn Neumann VanderBurgh

Carolyn Neumann VanderBurgh received her Bachelor of Music Education from Wilfrid Laurier University, a Bachelor of Education from Brock University, and a Master of Arts in Music Education from the University of St. Thomas in Minnesota. She enjoys her involvement in elementary music education and is the Secretary of the Kodaly Society of Canada.
