Cathy Baer

Cathy, presently on leave from the Music Department at Glenview Park Secondary School, is a graduate of the University of Western Ontario in Performance, and received the gold medal for highest standing in her graduating year. While in London, Cathy was a soloist with Youth Orchestra London and performed with the London G&S Society. Cathy joined the Winds in 1982 and is the personnel manager.

Len Bradfield

A founding member of the Winds in 1981, Len studied with Keith Gerrard and Nicholas Fiore while attending the University of Toronto in physics. Len has his Ph. D. in physics from the University of Waterloo and is presently an Engineering Software Developer. Len has also performed with the Community Orchestra, the Windjammers, and in his own flute-guitar duo called Weddings Etc.

Bradley Moggach

Brad attended McGill University graduating with distinction in organ performance. He has been organist and choir director at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Cambridge since 1982 and is also a founding member of both the Winds and the Royal City Sax Quartet in which he still performs. Brad's music activities are in addition to his teaching a grade 3 class at Ottawa Crescent Public School in Guelph.

John Monkhouse

John is a graduate of the University of Western Ontario, completing his B. Mus. and Associate Diploma in Performance. Presently owner of Steel Bros., a Guelph manufacturer of wire products and springs, John is a versatile musician having performed with many area organizations such as KWMP, RCMP, Ice Capades, jazz and polka bands, and brass ensembles. John is also a founding member of the Winds.
