DANIEL WARREN is currently the Resident Conductor (1999-present) of the Kitchener-Waterloo Symphony in Ontario, Canada. He is in frequent demand as a guest conductor and has done so with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, the National Arts Centre Orchestra, The Edmonton Symphony Orchestra, Symphony Nova Scotia, Orchestra London Canada, the Windsor Symphony, Symphony New Brunswick, The ERGO and Continuum ensembles and the Canadian Chamber Ensemble. He is heard conducting regularly on the CBC. For the past five years he has been the conductor for the "Westben Arts Festival Theatre" in Campbellford, Ontario, performing repertoire with orchestra and full chorus with soloists both operatic and instrumental, all in a wide variety of orchestral and operatic programs. Recently released is a CD of selections from the Nutcracker with the KW Symphony that Daniel recorded with them this fall. He resides in his owner-built home in a rural setting with his wife and two children.

MICHÈLE KAYE is a singer and actor based in Toronto. She is a graduate of Sheridan College's Music Theatre performance program, and has performed in Canada, the US, and Japan. She currently performs with her jazz ensemble The Elk Island Quartet and with her trio The Maisies, a three-part harmony group in the style of the Andrew Sisters.
